I can teach you my Bible verse.

"For the LORD is good and his love endures forever;
his faithfulness continues through all generations."
Psalm 100:5 (NIV)

These are my Bible Story cards. Help me cut them out and I can tell you the story.

What's That Word?

Someone who is loyal keeps their promises. This person is reliable and faithful in words and actions.

After tears and hugs goodbye, Orpah left. Ruth stayed and went to Bethlehem with Naomi.

Naomi told Orpah and Ruth to go home to their family. She couldn't provide for them.

In Moab her sons married Ruth and Orpah. Bad times continued when all three men died.

Naomi, her husband, and two sons moved to Moab after a famine left them with no food.

Boaz married Ruth and provided a home for both Ruth and Naomi.

Ruth brought home extra wheat to Naomi. Naomi was thankful for Boaz's kindness.

Boaz owned the field and liked how hard Ruth worked. He told his workers to leave extra wheat on the ground for Ruth.

In Bethlehem, Ruth provided for Naomi by looking for any wheat left over in the fields.
